

WHEN LIFE MOVES ON

By Lorraine Bruce

WHEN LIFE MOVES ON

When life moves on and loved ones are gone

The days can seem so long

Like a song that lingers in our hearts and mind

And thoughts of life turn so unkind

As we try to carry on

WHEN LIFE MOVES ON

By Lorraine Bruce

When life moves on and loved ones are gone

The days can seem so long

Like a memory so vivid that plays on repeat

And in remembering each moment our heart skips a beat

As we try to carry on

When life moves on and loved ones are gone

The days can seem so long

Like a cloud in the sky, so graceful and high

Yet, with each passing moment we say goodbye

As we try to carry on!!!
